“Last Minute” Bible Printables for Sunday School

INTRODUCTION

Many a Sunday school teacher has found herself in certain quandaries:

Uh-oh! I finished my planned lesson ten minutes early. What now?

Or...

Half these kids don't arrive exactly on time...what do I do with the half that does?

Or...

How can my assistant teach when I have the flu? What if she needs fillers?

Time fillers are a necessity. Don't feel bad about falling back on them.

Like antibiotics to kill an infection, fillers are needed by all Sunday school teachers for those days when things happen that are out of our control. None of us likes to throw a worksheet down in front of kids simply to pass time. That isn't what teaching is about!

We are here to help. Attached you will find our Bible Printables that can be easily reproduced for moments when your teaching plans just didn't work out right—you have extra time, you need extra support material, or a substitute teacher needs a little help. Don't feel bad—feel glad that you now have materials that not only fill time, but also teach the essentials of our faith to kids!

What's in our Bible Printables

Fun activities will keep kids age four to 12 actively engaged in learning the facts that go with our faith. For younger kids, we have coloring pages, easier mazes, and word searches. For more advanced children, we have more difficult versions of mazes, word searches, tiles, and cryptograms—a variety that should fit every need!

We also are including little mini-lessons, fun facts, and Bible verses on many pages. They will help children learn some faith essentials just by having fun! Themes like Powerful

Proverbs, Promising Prophecies, Bible Bad Guys, and Amazing Bible Struggles all touch the basic precepts of Christianity that we want our students to know. Wrapped in word searches, crosswords, cryptograms, and more, these Bible Printables will continue to teach your students, even when further lesson material is not available.

How to Use our Bible Printables

Flexibility is key. We have touched on all the subjects that are essential and useful to Sunday school teachers. Use our Table of Contents to find subjects that work best for you and your class.

You may find some of our subjects apply to what you will be teaching! As early as possible, print out some of our materials so that you are fully prepared for that lull in the action that needs filling, the day when you feel your students need extra help in catching on to your subject, or the day when you're in sudden need of a substitute.

You can easily see by looking through the individual sheets what will work well with your particular students and their age ranges. The easier mazes and word searches are smaller and less detailed. The cryptograms require some easy reading and knowledge of numbers. The double puzzles take longer and will probably be most fun for your older students. Coloring pages are always a hit with very young students. But all students love coloring, and you can bolster the activity by introducing glow-in-the-dark colors and glitter if desired.

Just print out enough copies of several activities to use when you may need them on short notice, and keep the rest of the originals available for later.

Keep Your Students Growing!

We only see our students for an hour or so a week. We only teach them for one year – several years if we are so blessed. We want to provide them with the learning they will need to turn into responsible Christian adults who know the Word and love of God. One desire as youth ministers is that we don't waste our students' time! Using these Printables will give you the assurance that your students are still learning, even when things are not going perfectly. When your health or planning fail – or when it just seems like the devil is trying to trip you up – you now have an extra layer of protection that will bring both fun and learning to your classroom!

When God causes people to take long journeys, it's because along the way, they became a-maze-ing people! David had to flee from King Saul, who was jealous after he killed Goliath. #5 PAUL OF TARSUS

The Apostle Paul traveled through half the known world, carrying the gospel to tens of thousands of gentiles. The farthest he was from Jerusalem is probably Sparta, which today is a 900-mile drive. He traveled several thousand miles in all three of his missionary voyages, and made more than 50 stops between Jerusalem and Rome. Go with Paul as he faces shipwrecks, imprisonment, heresies, and all sorts of challenges...

A-Maze-ing Bible Growth

#6 A SEED TO A TREE

While salvation is an important decision you make with God's help, it is only the start. The Bible talks often about the importance of growth, which is how many of our rewards will come to us both here and in heaven. The good news is that God causes the growth! All we have to do is follow. Follow your growth from a seed to a tree in the maze:

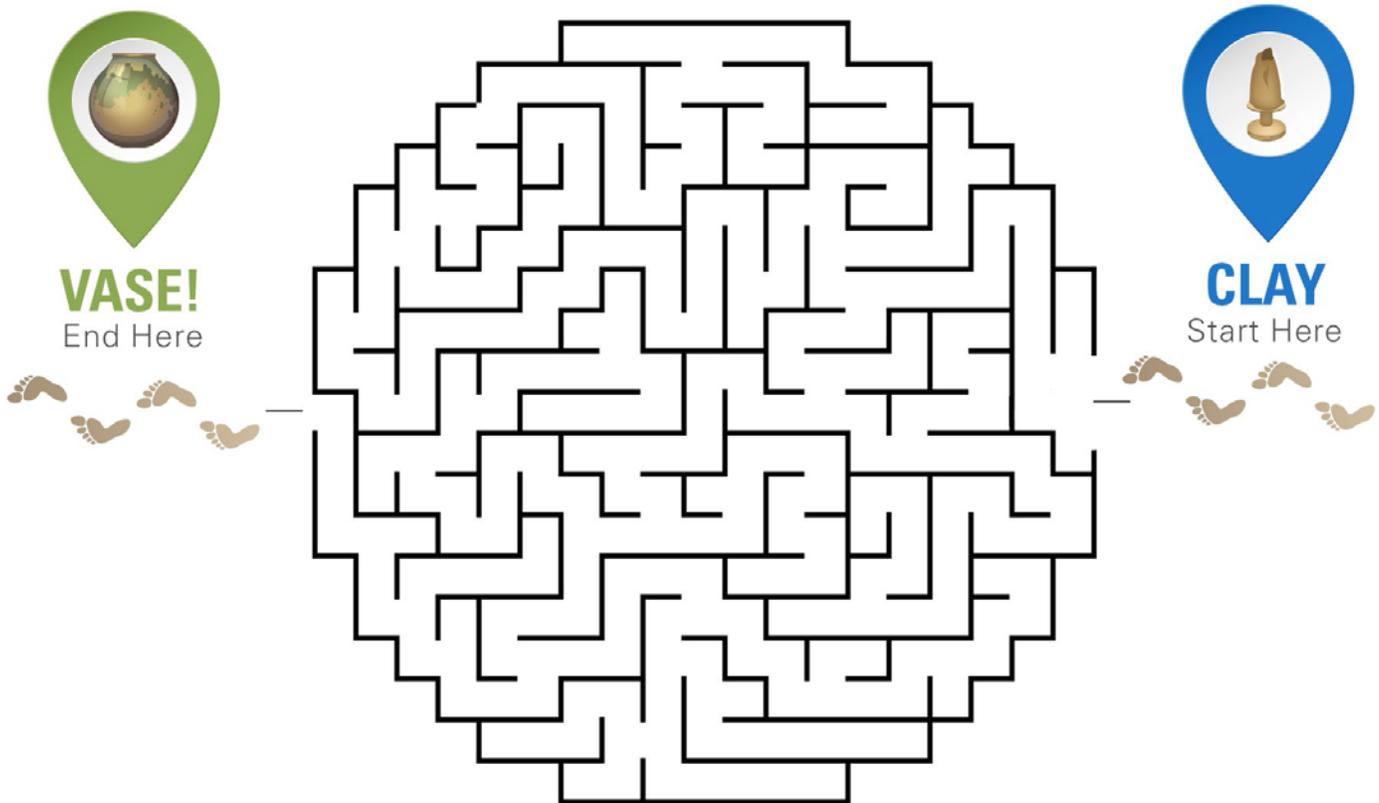

1 Corinthians 3:6-9 I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. ... Each will receive his wages according to his labor. For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's field, God's building.

#7 A GLOB OF CLAY TO AN URN

Have you ever watched on TV as a potter made a beautiful vase out of a glob of clay? That's sort of like how God prepares us for his heavenly kingdom. We can't always feel him working. We can sometimes find it hard to even sense his presence. But all the time he is working, working, building and molding us. Let's take this journey from being like a glob of clay to a finely painted vase for Jesus, realizing his loving hands are always upon us.

Isaiah 64:8 But now, O LORD, you are our Father, We are the clay, and you our potter; And all of us are the work of your hand.

#8 FROM TRIALS AND TESTING TO “COMPLETE!”

Not every bad thing we go through is a “test” from God. But God knows that when heartache strikes, great things happen. People become stronger. They become more reliant on him. They are better people after a trial strikes. Jesus said, “In this world you will have tribulation.” It’s a fact! Let’s take this journey through trials and tribulations knowing that Jesus goes before us, behind us, above us and below us!

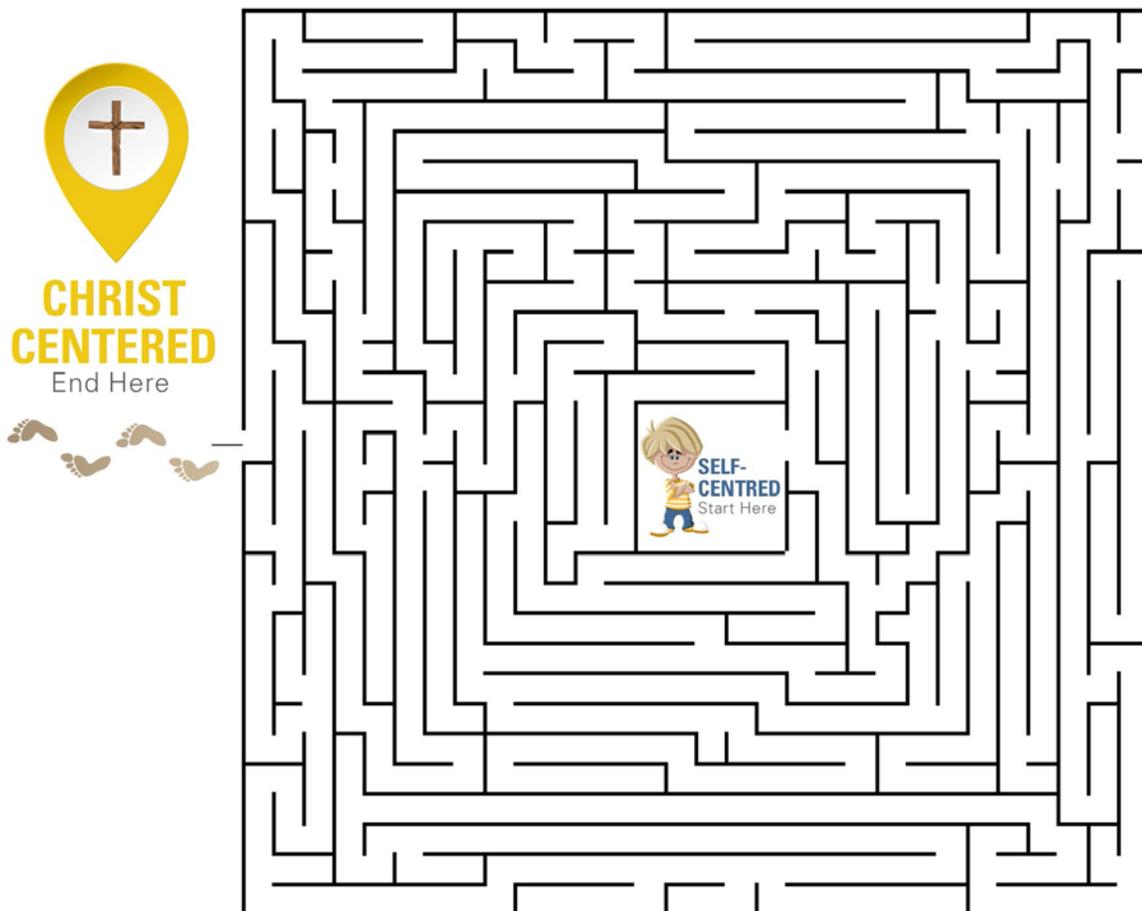

James 1:2-4 ² Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, ³ for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness. ⁴ And let steadfastness have its full effect, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.

#9 SELF-CENTERED TO CHRIST-CENTERED

Christians often describe their salvation experience as “stepping off the throne in my life” and “letting Jesus sit on that throne.” They describe growth as “keeping myself out of the throne seat that belongs to Jesus!” It is true that belonging to Jesus means you are going to let him run your show. But it takes spiritual growth to keep from trying to push Jesus back off the throne and be seated there! Let’s go on an a-maze-ing journey from the self-centered life to the Christ-centered life:

Galatians 2:20 I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life that I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

#10 SPIRITUAL CHILD TO A SPIRITUAL MAN

Salvation is just the beginning of your journey with Jesus. As soon as you give him your heart, he will begin the process of changing you from a spiritual child into a spiritual warrior. That doesn't mean you will chuck a spear or fire a gun for him someday. It does mean that your prayers will become powerful and your faith in him will be outstanding. Take this walk from newly saved spiritual child to spiritually powerful faith warrior.

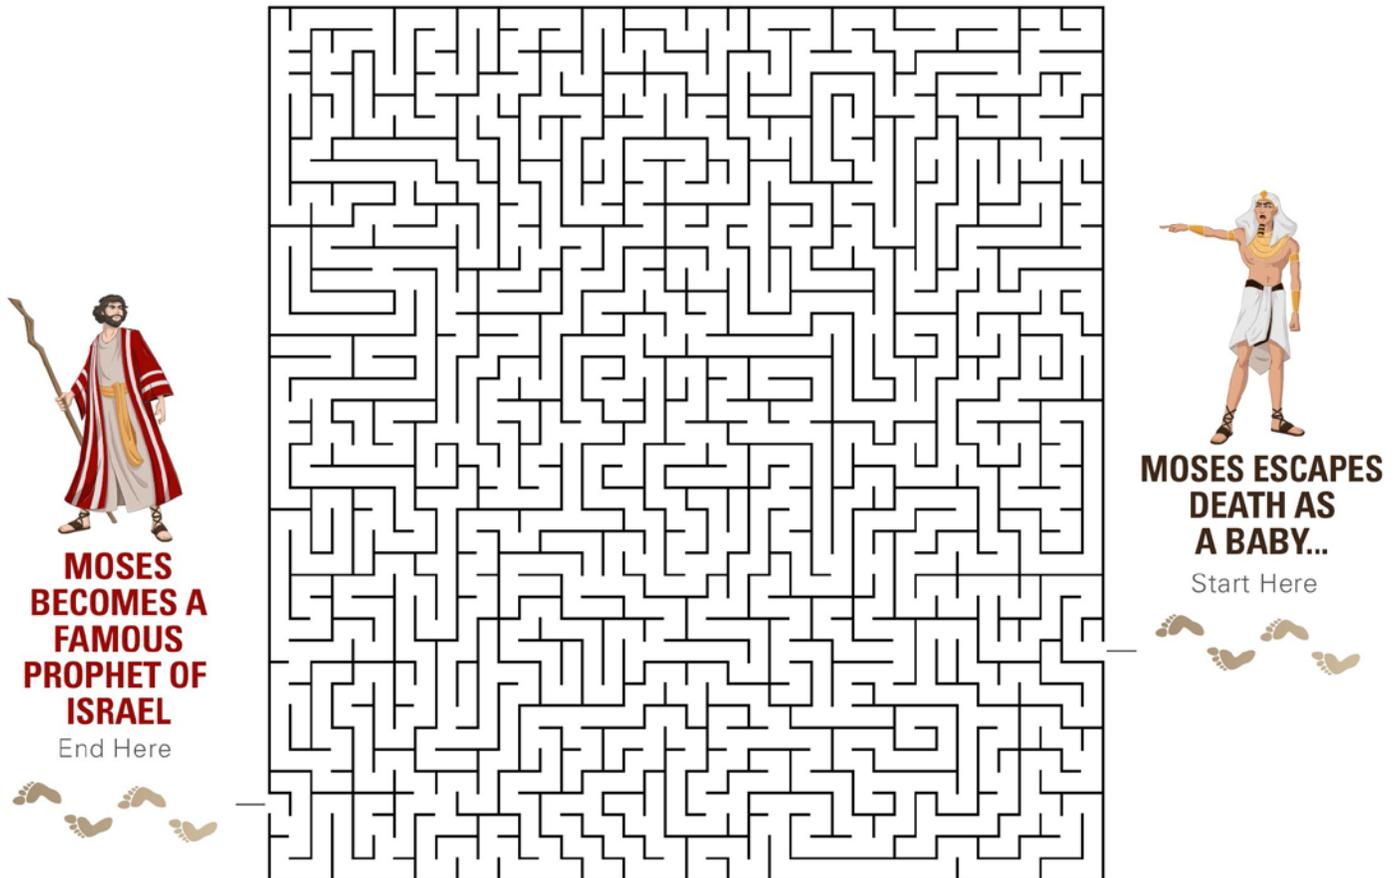

Hebrews 5:12-14 For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the basic principles of the oracles of God. You need milk, not solid food, for everyone who lives on milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, since he is a child. But solid food is for the mature, for those who have their powers of discernment trained by constant practice to distinguish good from evil.

#11 MOSES

As a baby, Moses was placed in the Nile River to avoid being killed. He was raised by a woman not his mother. He murdered a man. He met God at the Burning Bush, and was stunned to be asked to lead the Hebrews out of Egypt. Some say he had a speech impediment. After many great arguments with Pharaoh, he spoke for God to the Israelites on their 40-year journey to the Promised Land. He wrote the first five books of the Bible, the Pentateuch.

Elijah had to stand his ground against 450 prophets of Baal and the 400 prophets of the goddess Asherah in defense of God. The prophets of Baal made an altar to their gods and jumped around and cut themselves, wailing to them, but their altar did not light. Elijah had his altar doused with water several times. It lit!

After three days of dodging fish-gut digestive juices, he emerged ready to blast the truth! Jonah did a great job of telling the Nineveh people to repent.

#16 THE ROAD TO HAVING PATIENCE

Christianity is often referred to as a “walk with God” or a journey. That’s because we do not mature overnight. To adopt the traits we need to be considered “spiritually mature,” God will put us in a situation time and again to test that trait. Just as your coach asks you to do the same old weight lifting every day, God asks you to endure the same old waiting games when he wants you to have more patience.

Next time you hear your heart saying, “Nothing ever changes; this will always be the same,” know with confidence that God is right there, the author and finisher of your faith, taking you down the road to having patience. Follow the labyrinth from impatience and frustration to rejoicing that your patience is now a treasure:

Philippians 1:6 -- ...being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.

#17 THE ROAD TO A RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

After we give our hearts to Jesus, we receive his grace, which is forgiveness for all sins, past, present and future. Then begins a journey to spiritual maturity. People have more peace and joy after accepting Christ. Many, however, say their lives got harder! God wants you to arrive in heaven having relied on him for all your needs. Hence, he will make sure you are often in situations where the answers are elusive, and you have to ask him. The end result? A beautiful relationship, where you hear his voice and trust it and follow it.

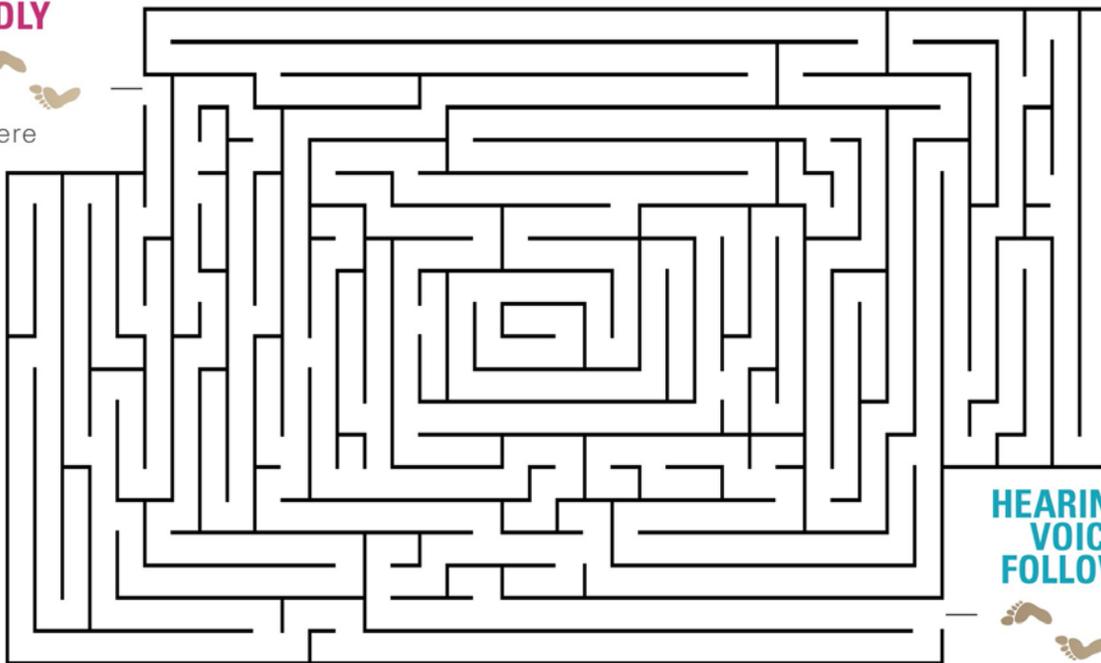

Follow the labyrinth from making your own decisions blindly to hearing his voice clearly and being able to follow it:

#18 THE PATH TO INTIMACY WITH GOD

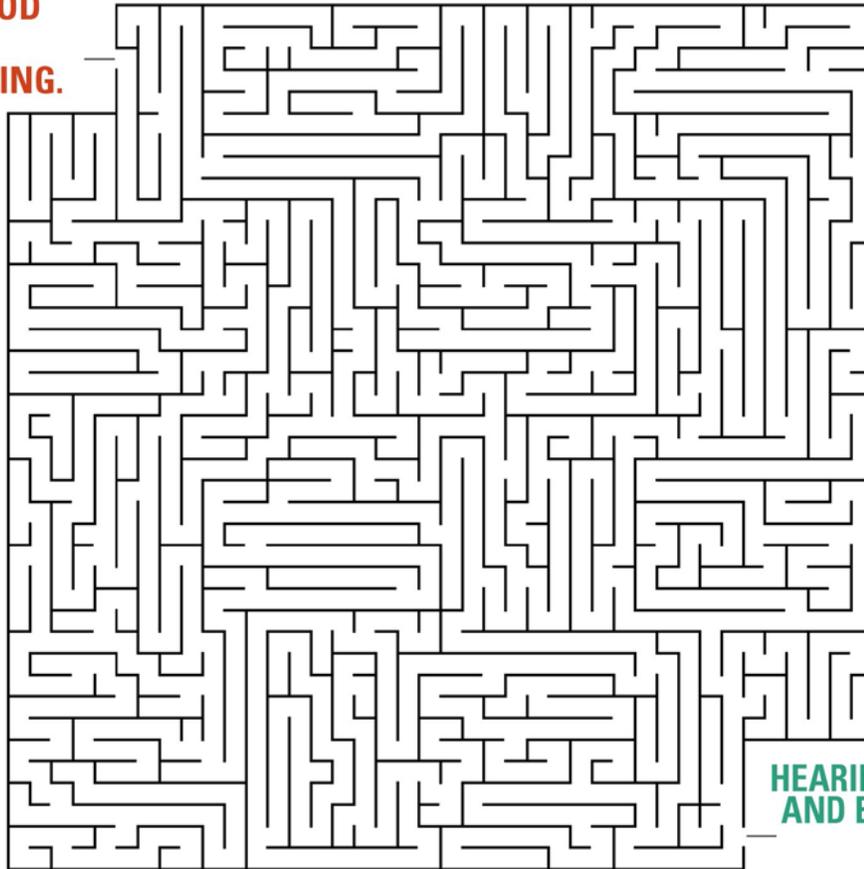

Our relationship with God is a lot like our relationship with parents. When we are born, we can't understand our parents, and they do all the work. As adults, parents become our advisors. When we are reborn into Christ's family, it is hard to hear God, and he does all the work. Spiritual maturity is speaking freely to God, with due respect, and with the comfort of talking to a friend with confidence, knowing he truly cares.

Let this journey below go from complete reliance on God without understanding to friendship with God, learning to hear, understand and trust him along the way.

#19 THE JOURNEY TO FORGIVENESS AND MERCY

One youth minister said this: “When I became a Christian, one of the first lessons I learned was not to gossip. The way God taught me was by constantly pointing out times I had done something similar. I would spout an accusation against someone and the Holy Spirit would jolt forth the memory. It made me good at forgiving others. I knew if I wanted forgiveness for some of the things I’d done, it was important to extend that forgiveness to others.”

Let’s follow this maze from being judgmental and outspoken to forgiving and merciful.

#20 JOURNEY TOWARD YOUR PERSONAL APOCALYPSE

Everybody's all concerned lately. Is Jesus coming back soon? Is the world going to end soon? The apocalypse may be 1,000 years away. But a great way to always answer that question is "Absolutely! The end is coming in less than 90 years!" Why would we say that? Because most of us will face death in that time, and Jesus wants us to focus on our personal lives, our spiritual condition, our charity, our hope, our vision and ability to hear him – and finally, our personal apocalypse (dying and going to heaven!)

Take this journey from rebirth in Christ to emerging in heaven after your personal apocalypse.

Revelation 22:20 He who testifies to these things says, "Yes, I am coming soon."

Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

WORD SEARCH #19:

CHURCHES OF THE REVELATION

In the Book of Revelation, there are seven churches to whom Jesus speaks. His words are both harsh and encouraging, as he tells these churches to be on their best behavior and stay alert for his return. The churches are all from the time of Christ, but today's Christians see things in all the messages that apply to us today. Below are the churches and their descriptions as found on the wonderful Christian web site www.gotquestions.org. Treat words in bold that are next to each other as separate words.

1. Ephesus (Revelation 2:1-7) - the church that had forsaken its first love (2:4).
2. Smyrna (Revelation 2:8-11) - the church that would suffer persecution (2:10).
3. Pergamum (Revelation 2:12-17) - the church that needed to repent (2:16).
4. Thyatira (Revelation 2:18-29) - the church that had a false prophetess (2:20).
5. Sardis (Revelation 3:1-6) - the church that had fallen asleep (3:2).
6. Philadelphia (Revelation 3:7-13) - the church that had endured patiently (3:10).
7. Laodicea (Revelation 3:14-22) - the church with the lukewarm faith (3:16).
